Can You Afford a De Laval Cream Separator ?

Well—Let's see. A DeLaval Cream Separator will save you $10 to $15 per cow every year of use over all gravities or dilution systems.

The DeLaval saves you at least $5 per cow every year of use over any other cream separator.

The DeLaval will last from two to ten times longer than any other machine.

Can You Afford NOT to Have a De Laval ?

We want to show you the following machines :

Improved No. 10,	-	Actual capacity 335 lbs	-	Price $65
Improved No. 12,	-	Actual capacity 450 lbs	-	Price $75
Improved No. 15,	-	Actual capacity 675 lbs	-	Price $90

We will convince you in no time that it's a mistake not to have a cream separator, and just as much of a mistake to have any other kind than a DeLaval.

Andrew Vamier, a farmer living eight miles southeast of town, suffered a very severe loss in fire Tuesday afternoon. His barn and granary with all contents except the stock, which was rescued, were entirely destroyed by the fire, which was supposed to have its origin in the careless lighting of matches by children at play in the barn. The fire was with some difficulty prevented from spreading to the house. Mr. Vomier estimates his loss at from $1200 to $1500 with no insurance.
